

Savoy Heritage Hotel - Beaufort West

Savoy Hotels

The Savoy Hotel Group, headquartered in Cape Town South Africa, is a privately-owned hotel brand. The company focusses on heritage hotels that have a long tradition and history.

The Savoy Hotel in Kimberley is the most prominent member of the group. This hotel was established in 1892 during the diamond rush in Kimberley.

The new addition to the Group is the Savoy Heritage Hotel in Beaufort West. The hotel, previously known as Queens Hotel was first built in 1894 and recently restored to reflect a fusion of the modern lifestyle while honouring our local history.

Beaufort West is in the heart of the country and the famous Karoo semi desert. Located in the Central Business District of Beaufort West, the hotel is within walking distance to the famous Old Pastorie, Christiaan Barnard Museum and the N1 highway.

The hotel has a rich history boasting as one of the first hotels in the Karoo.

We are taking you back to relive the 1950's when you visit Joe's Easy Diner, the in-house American Retro Diner that has been established in South Africa in 2010.

Rooms

With 18 well-appointed guest rooms, the Savoy Heritage Hotel is located in the heart of Beaufort West. Ideal for business and leisure travelers, the hotel offers a choice of comfortable heritage bedrooms with an antique flair of old wooden floors, doors and frames.

The hotel boasts a range of rooms, with air-conditioning, safes, coffee-and-tea making facilities, satellite TV's and complimentary WiFi.

The retro styled American Diner offers a sumptuous breakfast, lunch or dinner. Light snacks and beverages are available throughout the day. Breakfast includes international as well as local South-African choices of freshly baked bread, rolls and pastries from a local bakery and a range of fruits and yoghurts.
